

Scarborough—Real Estate.

Frank Jeanspent Memorial Day at Cincinnati.

Geo. Edwards spent Tuesday at Mowrystown.

Will Harris, of Cincinnati, visited friends here Sunday.

B. Dessauer and family left Wednesday for Madison, Ind.

For fine tailoring call on Phil Thienes, West Main street.

Mrs. Rush E. Evans, of Dayton, is the guest of Miss Cora Bell.

Beeson Carlisle, of Georgetown, spent Decoration Day here.

For fine tailoring call on Phil Thienes, West Main street.

Will Richards—"Stuffy"—of Bainbridge, was in town Sunday.

Postmaster Joe Cohn, of Highland, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mrs. C. V. Critchfield entertained with a euchre Friday afternoon.

The best people in Hillsboro and vicinity trade at the Bee Hive.

Call on John Pfarr for cleaning and repairing.

Ice cream freezers, all sizes, at THE ECONOMY STORE.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Saxby, of Cincinnati, visited friends here Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Gardner, of Washington C. H., is the guest of relatives here.

Rev. D. Lee Aultman was the guest of Sabina friends Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Morgan and children returned home from Paducah, Ky., Friday.

John Read, formerly of Hillsboro, now of Dayton, spent Sunday with his mother here.

Mrs. Lou se J. Amen, of Greenfield, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Sarah E. McKeenan.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watts, of Grand Junction, Iowa, are the guests of relatives here.

Prof. Thomas will preach at the First Baptist Church at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

See the beautiful decorated china ware that the Bee Hive is giving free to their customer.

The Bee Hive is now delivering all goods to any part of the city, without any advance in price.

Miss Blanche Jones spent last week at Lynchburg, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Murphy.

Phil Geyler went down to Cincinnati Saturday on a combination visiting and business trip.

Will and Sam Rockel, of Cincinnati, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rockel.

The colored population of Batavia will give a big picnic at Jamieson reservoir park June 15.

Mrs. Ted Utman returned home Friday after spending two weeks with relatives at Cincinnati.

Miss Mora Harshe arrived home Tuesday after filling a professional engagement in Canada.

Miss Elsie Burke, of Cincinnati, visited her aunts, the Misses Burke, on Willow street, Sunday.

Miss Jennie Russell, of Muncie, Ind., is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Carlisle.

Dr. P. H. Wever, of Deer Lodge, Tenn., arrived Friday to visit his sister, Mrs. Catherine Collins.

White Plymouth Rock eggs $1.00 per setting. Mrs. J. S. OLDAKER, R. D. 4, Lynchburg, O.

Hammocks, base ball goods and croquet sets cheap at THE ECONOMY STORE.

Ed. Bunn, of Bainbridge, came up Sunday and remained to be present at the marriage of his sister Tuesday.

T. J. Cusick, of the Columbus Press-Post, was here Tuesday to attend the wedding of his brother, R. B. Cusick.

Mrs. A. W. Underwood is spending this week with Squire C. F. Underwood and family in the north-western suburbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nelson, of Norwood, and Ben Nelson, of Cincinnati, were guests of Hillsboro relatives Sunday.

The twelfth annual Banquet of the Alumni of Salem Academy will be held on June 8, in Academy Hall, South Salem.

An ice cream festival will be held at Auburn church Wednesday evening, June 6. Proceeds for the benefit of the church.

Mrs. Randall Hunt, who has spent the winter at the residence of Mrs. Catherine Collins, left Monday for Indianapolis.

Chas. Lafferty, of Pittsburgh, Pa., accompanied by his family, visited his brother, Dr. N. B. Lafferty, the first of this week.

"Get the habit" and buy a box of Bliss Native Herb Tablets of F. R. Shepherd, 735 south High street. 200 days treatment $1.00.

Members of the senior class of the High School are arranging for a picnic to take place at Costello's Mill next Monday, June 4.

Bell's Opera House will be "dark"—theatrically speaking—until Aug. 22. Donnelly & Hatfields Minstrel's are book for that date.

Mr. and Mrs. John Uhrig, of Los Vegas, N. M., and Ed. Uhrig, of Nelsonville, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Uhrig on Ripley Hill.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Marshall M. E. Church will give a strawberry festival on M. G. Lucas' lawn Saturday evening, June 2.

The Hillsboro and Greenfield color baseball teams tried conclusions at noon. Hillsboro won—7 to 1.

Special for Saturday, June 2, 14 qt. granite dish pans and granite kettles worth 45c. and 40c. for only 25c.

THE ECONOMY STORE.

Mrs. Kate Glenn, who has resided near Lafayette, Ind., since the death of her husband, the late Col. Wm. H. Glenn, has removed to Detroit, Mich.

Pupils of the seventh and eighth grades of the public schools went to Cincinnati via the Hillsboro Short Line Tuesday and had a picnic at the Zoo.

Mr. Wolfe has certainly made a wonderful change in the appearance of the Bee Hive Store. It is the neatest and cleanest store in Hillsboro.

Chief of Police C. C. Smith, of Washington C. H., who was tried last week on charges prepared by the local Anti-Saloon league, was found not guilty.

Geo. A. Compton, formerly a popular business man of this place, but for many years a resident of Cincinnati, was shaking hands with friends here Monday.

If you want to keep in good health get a box of "Bliss Native Herb Tablets." Sold by F. R. Shepherd, 735 south High street. 200 days treatment $1.00.

The C. & C. Traction Co. will sell excursion tickets to Hillsboro from all points from Boston east, one fare round trip, on Stockdale Day, Saturday, June 2.

President Alfred Brown, of Wilmington College, will preach at the Friends Fallcreek church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, sun time. All are invited.

Tickets for the Thursday evening Commencement program may be reserved at Stout's, Tuesday, June 5, and for the Friday evening program, Wednesday, June 6.

Mrs. T. J. Wyatt and Miss Mabel Hillard spent several days at Portsmouth last week being called there by the death of the former's nephew, Charles Kanouse.

Safelowers are making a specialty of robbing post-offices in this part of the State. Batavia and Jeffersonville have been among the places visited by the "eggmen."

Highland Commandry K. T. No. 31 marched in a body to the M. E. Church Sunday morning to attend Ascension Day services conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Deaton.

Three candidates for the official shoes of Postmaster Richards are reported. Ex-Sheriff S. N. Patton, Col. T. A. Walker and John Jolly. And there may be others.

Mrs. Adam Gray, Mrs. Samuel Hunt, Miss Haydock and Henry Hunt, of Cincinnati, passed through town by auto Sunday for points east, returning Monday morning.

A team driven by Gilbert Holmes, a prominent citizen, ran away Monday morning, throwing Mr. Holmes from the wagon and causing a painful fracture of the left arm.

Tickets for the Thursday evening Commencement program may be reserved at Stout's, Tuesday, June 5, and for the Friday evening program, Wednesday, June 6.

Blanchester organized a Matinee Club Saturday, having a membership of fifty and electing Lew Jack, President. It will have its first meet Friday afternoon of this week.

The engagement of Gus Oreans ("Teddy"), of Toledo, and Miss Mary King, of Norwood, both formerly of this place, is announced. The wedding will take place at Toledo in a short time.

Thirty-six business firms of Lebanon have obligated themselves to pay a certain sum for thirteen weekly concerts to be given on the streets of that village by their band during the summer.

A number of the local lodges of Jr. O. U. A. M. and D. of A. went to Fairview Sunday afternoon, where memorial services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Howard of the Hillsboro U. B. Church.

The Rt. Rev. Boyd Vincent, Bishop of the Diocese of Southern Ohio, made his annual visitation to the parish of St. Mary's Episcopal Church on Sunday and administered the rite of confirmation.

The G. A. R., W. R. C. and S. of V. attended the Church of Christ Sunday morning, where memorial services were held. An able and appropriate sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Helm.

At West Union last week the jury in the second trial of William E. Gregory, charged with arson in connection with the disastrous fire at Manchester on January 1, after being out 24 hours, returned with a verdict of guilty. The jury on the former trial disagreed.

Les Britton, a farmer living near New Vienna, had a narrow escape from being killed by a vicious 600-pound hog a few days ago. His clothes were nearly torn off, his face bruised, and his wrist lacerated.

Prof. Conard came from Gallipolis, Friday evening and returned Saturday, accompanied by his two daughters, Katharine and Helen, who have been visiting their grandfather, Dr. Conard, for some week.—New Vienna Reporter.

Mrs. W. A. Morrow, wife of Secretary Morrow, of the Hillsboro Cemetery Association, died Saturday and was buried Monday, the funeral services being held at the M. E. Church and conducted by Rev. W. A. Deaton. Deceased was about 85 years old.

Captain-elect Arthur Wesley Underwood, and First Lieut.-elect M. H. Wedding, Co. D. 1st Regiment O. N. G., left for Columbus Sunday and on Monday appeared before the examining board which passed upon their fitness for promotion, and said that they would do.

Mrs. Sarah M. Moore, who had been the guest of her brother, Rev. J. W. Shade for a fortnight, left Thursday of last week to visit relatives at Piketon and Waverly and will visit her nephew, Thomas Emmett Moore, of the Wellston Sentinel, before returning to her home at Cincinnati.

Hon. Whitelaw Reid, Ambassador to the Court of St. James, has sent to Cedarville College his personal check for $1,000, to be added to the endowment fund of the institution. Ambassador Reid is a native of Greene county, and the old Reid homestead, where he was born, is still standing near Cedarville.

W. H. Stanage, the well-known stationer of Cincinnati, was calling on customers here Friday after an absence of several months. He recently returned from California, where he was spending a vacation when the earthquake visited the coast, but it did not get sufficiently near him to do him any damage.

The News-Herald is in receipt of a copy of the Foraker Tribune, a bright weekly newspaper published at Foraker, Okla., a new town where building lots are selling like hot waffles at from $20 to $800 each. R. F. Hagererty, formerly of this place, is the agent of the Midland Valley railroad at Foraker.

In another column will be found an account of the death of Mrs. Dr. W. C. Hall at Coffeyville, Kan., April 5. Mrs. Hall was raised and always lived at Sinking Spring until her marriage to Dr. Hall, who formerly practiced medicine there and many relatives of both Dr. and late Mrs. Hall reside in the vicinity of Belfast and elsewhere throughout Highland county.

The passenger department of the Chicago & North-Western Railway announces that the rate to Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, in September, on the occasion of the Centennial Celebration of the discovery of Pike's Peak, will be $25. round trip from Chicago. The lines east of Chicago will probably announce a correspondingly low rate from all points.

Prof. J. E. Collins, who has had the superintendency of the Batavia school for six years past has thrown up the job. The board had fixed his salary at $1200 a year for the term of three years, but an offer of $1700 per year from the Board of Education of Fremont, looked mighty good to the professor.

Dr. Isaac Smith, of Greenfield, lost a horse last week which he valued at $375. The animal was hitched in front of a residence, when an auto came along and frightened it. The horse reared and plunged forward, impaling itself on a hitching post. A large artery was severed and the animal bled to death.

The auditors of the counties having the appraisal of the B. & O. S-W railroad property met recently at the court house in Cincinnati to appraise the holdings of that road. The following schedule per mile was adopted: Main track $10,000, second track $4,800, branches $4,000, main track sidings $2,000, branch sidings $1,000, rolling stock, $2,000, tools, money and machinery $200.

Highland county is utterly without saloons, and under the operation of the search and seizure law is practically a prohibition county. It will be remembered that it was in Hillsboro that the Woman's temperance praying crusade, that swept through the country, was inaugurated. But still it is not of record that anyone in Highland county ever perished from intense thirst.—Clermont Courier.

The D. of A. and Jr. O. U. A. M. lodges met Tuesday evening and marched to the Washington School building, where, with appropriate ceremonies, they presented the school a beautiful American flag. Carey Roush, on behalf of the lodges, made the presentation speech and Prof. Baird, in well chosen words accepted it on behalf of the schools. The exercises closed with the singing of "Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue," and "Nearer My God to Thee," by all present.

H. E. Richards & Co., the millers and grain dealers, are erecting a modern elevator on the lot east of the ice plant and across the alley from their mill. The new structure will be provided with steel bins having a total capacity of about 45,000 bushels of grain.

Scarborough—Insurance.

Seeing is believing; come in and let C. F. Faris make you see with a pair of accurately fitted glasses.

EXAMINATION FREE.
C. F. FARIS, Specialist.
OFFICE—First door east of Economy Store, Main street, Hillsboro O.

COMMON PLEAS COURT.

Grand Jury Will Resume Business Thursday Morning.

The Grand Jury resumed its session on Monday morning and adjourned on Tuesday evening until after Decoration Day. It is likely they will conclude their labor on Thursday.

The petit jury originally ordered to appear on Monday, May 28, were notified not to report for duty until Monday, June 11.

The jury commissioners appointed by Judge Newby are as follows: E. G. Smith, D. S. Hays, Thos. M. White, Joseph Karnes.

They reported on Monday and were instructed and sworn and ordered to select the names of 200 persons to act as jurors for the ensuing year, and concluded their work on Tuesday.

The following orders were also placed on the Journal: Alpha Gantz vs. Wm. Gantz. Decree of divorce as prayed for, plaintiff to pay costs.

Geo. Free, as admr. etc. vs. John M. McMullen, et al. Demurrer to petition overruled. Exceptions. Leave to defendant, Wm. Clyburn to answer within 20 days.

Margaret Lilley vs. The Incorporated village of Hillsboro, O. Demurrer to petition overruled. Exceptions. Leave to defendant to answer within 15 days.

Lena Rhonemus vs. Arthur Rhonemus. Decree of divorce as prayed for upon payment of costs. Plaintiff given custody of minor child.

Grace Griffith vs. Charles Griffith. Decree of divorce as prayed for upon payment of costs.

Della M. Montgomery vs. Sarah E. Gray, et al. Writ of partition ordered. Perry Whitacre, Dr. J. T. Gibson and U. S. Bering appointed commissioners.

NEW CASES FILED.
Julius Koch, plaintiff in error vs. The State of Ohio, defendant in error. This is a case brought to this court on error from Mayor's court. An exhibit of 21 bottles of beer was filed with the papers, same having been "seized" under Search and Seizure Act.

In the matter of the application of First Baptist Church of Hillsboro, O. The above suit was brought to sell some real estate belonging to said religious organization.

The State of Ohio vs. Hubert Percena. Contempt. The defendant in above case was subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury as a witness and failed to obey its commands. An attachment was ordered and the Sheriff arrested him on Sunday and brought him to Hillsboro, and he was released from custody by giving bond in the sum of $100, for his appearance on Monday. At a hearing of the case on Tuesday the defendant was discharged for the reason that he was not subpoenaed until after the time named in the writ commanding him to appear. He is a resident of Cincinnati.

Henry Rhoades vs. Wm. M. Porter as Treas. This suit is brought to enjoin the defendant from collecting certain taxes from the plaintiff.

V. B. McConaughy vs. Margaret Ashmore and Wm. Ashmore. Revivor of judgment.

Conrad Brown and R. M. Griffith vs. The Incorporated village of Lynchburg, O. Error.

Azel Ratchford vs. Wesley Milner and James A. Wilkins. Partition.

The wedding of Overton Hire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hire, and Miss Flora Morrow Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Spencer, will occur at the home of the bride's parents, on South High street, Wednesday, June 6, at 4 o'clock p. m.

Best values in underwear and hosiery at THE ECONOMY STORE.

Adjutant General Hughes announces that the maneuvers of the Ohio National Guard will be held in Tuscarawas county between Strasburg and Bolivar, August 13 to 20 inclusive. The entire militia will be divided into two divisions, one with headquarters at Strasburg the other with headquarters at Bolivar.

The long drouth and extreme heat came to a close Tuesday night when the flood-gates were opened and Southern Ohio got a drenching. The rain was most opportune as many farmers had fields plowed which it was utterly impossible to put in proper condition for planting and time was beginning to grow short.

The annual Central Ohio Intercollegiate Athletic League Field Meet, takes place in Chillicothe on Friday of next week. Williamsport, Washington C. H., Greenfield, Frankfort and Hillsboro will all send teams and large delegations of rooters. 1500 or 2,000 visitors are expected. Hillsboro will be represented by Earl Hawk, Starling Ambrose, Richard Evans, Galloway Elben, Ferris Hughes, Scott Worley, Dan Robertson, Roy Kelley, Howard Jeans and Leroy Vance.

Buy Your SPRING SUIT NOW

I have just bought from one of the largest New York manufacturers of Clothing a line of Spring Suits at great reduction in price, and want you to call and see them.

I CAN SAVE YOU BIG MONEY ON PRICES.

Sam R. Free
THE EXCLUSIVE CLOTHIER
FREE'S CORNER, HILLSBORO, O.

1826 S. E. HIBBEN & SON 1906

White
Fans.

A large variety to show to you from 10c to $2.00

White
Hose.

Lace Lisle--Gauze Lisle for Ladies and Children. Also in pink and blue.

S. E. HIBBEN & SON.

Beautiful and Useful Presents

FOR THE

GRADUATES

AT THE
NEW STORE.

Just a Few Suggestions.

A pretty White Parasol, $1.50 to $3.50.

A serviceable Umbrella, all prices.

A dainty White Fan, 50c to $2.50.

A stylish Belt, all prices.

A fancy Collar, all prices.

A dozen Handkerchiefs.

A few pairs of Lace or Embroidered Hose.

A pretty Ribbon Sash.

You can find all these in the very latest styles at the NEW STORE.

C.M.KERNS.